

I oppose weakening the "Do Not Call" laws. These telemarketers are too often unscrupulous and prey on the elderly, as they did with my mother. Protecting people from their unwanted solicitations is essential.